

HOT FIGHT ON HUNTER OPENED

HOUSE MEMBERS URGED PENSION PLAN

LIBERALIZATION FOR OLD AGE ASSISTANCE WANTED BY FEB. 27

ATTEMPT INSTRUCT COMMITTEE TO REPORT, HOWEVER, FAILS TWO-THIRDS

AUSTIN, Feb. 16.—(P)—More than half the members of the house today they wanted a report on some old age pensions liberalization bill by February 27 but the vote fell a little short of the two-thirds majority required to instruct the committee.

The attempt to instruct, made by Rep. J. Bryan Bradbury of Abilene, failed on a vote of 83 ayes and 48 nays. Bradbury said he believed the legislature first should determine its pension paying policy, then would know how much in new taxes would have to be raised.

The young Abilene veteran pointed out that the legislative session was almost one-third over yet the state affairs committee had not sent any pension bill to the floor. Other members called his attention to the fact other committees had started hearings on a proposed constitutional amendment in which new taxes and bigger pensions were combined.

Rep. Abe Mays of Atlanta asked Bradbury if he did not know that the committee was considering a constitutional amendment which would stipulate who will receive pensions and how the money will be obtained. Mays was referring to Governor W. Lee O'Daniel's transactions tax program.

"That's right," Bradbury countered, "but since you're sponsoring it, I don't know much about it. I don't know that it will come out of committee."

Mays admitted he did not have a thorough knowledge of the plan but denied he was sponsoring it.

Rep. Ross Hardin of Prairie Hill said he believed the legislature should consider a proposed constitutional amendment instead of a bill as desired by Bradbury. "Let's let the people settle this pension and tax question," he urged.

Transaction Tax Argument Is Hot
AUSTIN, Feb. 16.—(P)—O'Daniel roared in the house gallery again today and peered into an arena boiling with argument over his monthly pension. The controversial transactions tax. Neatly printed placards mounted on sticks they grasped voiced their opposition.

"We want the transactions tax plan enacted now," the strange band of tattered oldsters—some in overalls—women, babes-in-arms and negroes marched down Congress avenue yesterday, up the capitol steps.

COUNCIL OF HIGH SPANISH OFFICERS DISCUSSING PEACE

DEADLOCK BETWEEN THOSE WISHING PEACE AND THOSE WISHING FIGHT ON

PARIS, Feb. 16.—(P)—Peace or war in Spain appeared today to depend on the council of high officers of the Spanish republic.

The first parity, between the moderate wing of the Spanish government suing for peace with the insurgents and the die-hards trying to carry on the civil war, ended last night in a deadlock.

Further talks were anticipated. At the Spanish embassy Manuel Azana, self-exiled but still president of Spain, held out for peace.

The Madrid Foreign minister, Julio Alvarez Del Vayo, arrived by plane yesterday from Madrid to set for Premier Juan Negrin, who wants a continuance of the war.

Spanish quarters understood Del Vayo's mission was to urge Negrin to accept a truce.

Four Bandits Get Estimated $27,000 In Bold Robbery

NORWALK, Conn., Feb. 16.—(P)—Four bandits, all of them armed and wearing dark glasses, held up two bank messengers and their police guard today as the three men emerged from the post-office here and escaped in an automobile with $27,000 in payroll funds.

Three of the bandits attacked Sergeant John Toothill, 55, wrapping his clothing about him to prevent use of his pistol, then slugged him on the head with a blackjack.

The other gunman seized the two pouches from the messengers, employees of the City National Bank, and ran to the car. His companions followed.

NORWALK, Conn., Feb. 16.—(P)—Four bandits held up two bank messengers and a policeman today and escaped with an estimated $27,000 after firing at the officer, then slugging him with a pistol butt.

The messengers and their guard had just got the currency, intended for the City National Bank, from the postoffice when on the street outside four men alighted from an automobile and commanded "give us that money."

Two of the bandits snatched the money, contained in a leather pouch, from the messengers while two others set upon the policeman. During the struggle one of the gunmen fired a shot at the officer but it missed its mark. A fifth man stayed behind the car wheel.

Mr. Roosevelt said the United States uses more energy per capita than any other nation and "our scientists tell us there will be a progressively increasing demand for energy for all purposes." "Our energy resources are not inexhaustible," he asserted, "yet we are permitting waste in their use and production. In some instances, to achieve apparent economies today future generations will be forced to carry the burden of unnecessarily high costs and to substitute inferior fuels for particular purposes."

"National policies concerning energy," he said.

Engineer, Porter Fast Passenger Train Killed

AMORY, Miss., Feb. 16.—(P)—The Sunnysland, fast Frisco passenger train, collided head-on with a northbound freight train at Amory, nine miles east of here early today.

E. L. Buren, Frisco agent here, said the collision occurred between a passenger train and a freight train. The passenger train, which was carrying 100 passengers, was traveling at 40 miles per hour when it struck the freight train, which was traveling at 20 miles per hour.

The collision resulted in the deaths of the engineer, Porter, and the porter. The passenger train was derailed and the freight train was damaged.

The Frisco company is investigating the cause of the accident. It is believed that the passenger train was traveling too fast for the conditions.

CLAIMED PRESIDENT OVERRODE CHIEF OF STAFF U. S. ARMY

PERMITTED FRENCH TO BUY 100 LATEST TYPE OF AMERICAN BOMBERS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—(P)—Members disclosed today the senate military committee had received testimony President Roosevelt overrode specific objections from General Malin Craig, army chief of staff, to permit a French air mission to buy 100 American-made bombing planes of the latest type.

Secretary Morgenthau told the committee, Senator Austin (R-Vt.) said, that the president had overruled Craig's objections after a conference with Morgenthau, Craig and the secretary of the navy.

Craig objected, Austin said, the testimony disclosed, that if the French were permitted to purchase planes being produced for army use this might interfere with the army's procurement of necessary planes in time to meet requirements under the administration's new defense program.

Craig also said, Austin reported, that the French plane deal might deprive the army entirely of the Douglas light bombers.

Seek Quick Action On Defense Program

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—(P)—The senate military committee sought today to clear the way for quick action on President Roosevelt's defense program by winding up its stormy investigation of the sale of American-made warplanes to France.

At the same time, testimony taken yesterday from army officials was being prepared for publication.

HITLER AMBASSADOR TO VATICAN GIVES CARDINALS WARNING

NEW POPE TO PLAY IMPORTANT PART IN DEVELOPMENT NEW WORLD, HE SAYS

VATICAN CITY, Feb. 16.—(P)—Reichsfuehrer Hitler's ambassador to the Holy See informed the College of Cardinals today the new pope they are to choose would play an important role in the development of a new world.

The ambassador, Diego Von Bergen, spoke when he led the diplomatic corps, of which he is dean, to call upon the cardinals for a formal presentation of condolences on the death of Pope Pius XI.

He expressed hope the new world he mentioned would be built peacefully "on the ruins of the past."

He reminded the cardinals of their responsibility in naming a pope.

BILL HURRIEDLY PASSED BY CONGRESS DURING ROOSEVELT COURT FIGHT GETS RESULTS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—(P)—A bill that the house hurriedly passed prematurely in 1935 has become the medium through which President Roosevelt is transforming the supreme court.

That measure, which the house rejected, was enacted in a hurry in 1937 during Mr. Roosevelt's fight to reorganize the court. It gave supreme court justices the right to retire at full pay when they become 70 years old if they have been on the bench ten years.

Death and retirement have removed two of the administration supporters on the court, Justices Cardozo and Brandeis—but would have been replaced by two others whom the administration called conservatives—Justices Sutherland and Van Devanter.

The three members who thus far have been named by Mr. Roosevelt—Justices Black, Reed and Frankfurter—have been stout advocates of new deal policies before they were appointed.

The man to be picked for the vacancy caused by Justice Brandeis' retirement is virtually certain to be of similar mind.

The fact that the move for change in the method of retirement came two years before Mr. Roosevelt's contest with congress over the court gives an indication of his purpose.

ARCTIC COLD SPREAD OVER EAST IN WAKE OF FREAK WEATHER

MORE THAN DOZEN LIVES LOST IN EASTERN HALF OF UNITED STATES

By The Associated Press.
Arctic cold spread over the East today in the wake of freak weather conditions that claimed at least 13 lives in the Eastern half of the United States.

Abating winds that had reached a 81-mile-an-hour intensity yesterday ended the threat of serious floods along sections of New England coast.

Snow and swiftly dropping temperatures accompanied the storm as it moved eastward from the Midwest, freezing rain-swept highways but lowering the flood menace in the upper Ohio valley.

Effect of rainfall in the lower valley, still unreached by the flooded Ohio's crest, remained doubtful.

Red cross officials prepared to move many families.

Cato, which struck the mid-south yesterday left two dead in Alabama.

Five persons died in three auto accidents in central Pennsylvania attributed to blinding snow and slippery roads. Other accidents cost two lives in New Jersey, and two brothers drowned when a ramp was swept away at Elmira, N. Y.

Snow to depths of six and eight inches covered Western New York State and sent small streams brimming their banks.

New England, harassed by rain, gales, lightning, fog, and abnormal tides, looked forward to more snow.

Floods inundated bottomland in Tennessee, Arkansas and Mississippi, where the Red Cross was caring for refugee in three communities.

Crowder, a town of about 500, was surrounded by water and residents could reach the outside world only by telephone and boat.

Cold Wave Moves Into Texas From Northwest Area

DALLAS, Feb. 16.—(P)—Butt on up. The weather bureau here today reported a mild cold wave moving on Texas from the North Pacific.

The temperature will drop to freezing in Dallas tonight, with slightly below freezing in the Panhandle. The cold will extend south of Dallas tomorrow.

Livestock warnings have been issued for northwest portions of East Texas and north portions of the Panhandle, but the weather bureau said the cold would not be severe.

CENTRAL TEXAS DENTISTS MEET IN QUARTERLY SESSION

CORSICANA HOST TO QUARTERLY MEETING OF SIXTH DISTRICT SOCIETY

Thirty-five Central Texas dentists met in Corsicana Wednesday for the quarterly meeting of the Sixth District Dental Society. Dr. J. O. Hall of Waco was clinician for the meeting. Dr. Hall spoke on "General Dentistry."

After the general meeting the society assembled in executive session for the election of officers. Officers remained the same for the new year with Dr. H. M. Martin of Mexia elected president; Dr. G. R. Ritchie, of Itasca, vice-president; and Dr. Joe Kubala of Hubbard, secretary-treasurer. The society voted to include Henderson and Anderson counties in the district and Brazos county was dropped.

Dr. Jack McKinney of Corsicana was elected an honorary member. The society made plans for the meeting of the State Dental Society in Fort Worth.

Dentist present included: Doctors G. L. Smith, Waxahachie; D. M. Colquitt, Waxahachie; Frank McKennon, Waxahachie; C. C. Cook, Waxahachie; D. W. Ostrander, Waxahachie.

Corsicana present included: Charles H. Russell, S. A. Briley, James Hall, Paul G. Spencer, Joe Falsow, J. W. Halliwell, all from Waco.

Hillsboro was represented by Doctors C. H. Schlatt, J. R. McCulloch, Henry Gill, John L. Harmon.

Dr. H. J. Williams, Midlothian; C. A. McMurray, Ennis; H. W. Hoffer, Kerens; H. M. Martin, Mexia; Ray Leamon, Mexia; Dick R. Lane, Groesbeck; Joe Kubala, Hubbard; M. G. McHoeen, Fairfield; J. D. Holland, Frost; G. R. Ritchie, Itasca.

Corsicana was represented by Doctors Trim Houston, A. W. Rogers, H. B. Love, Fred B. Owen, Harry Ezell, and Jack McKinney.

Fire Insurance Premiums to Be Up Five Per Cent

A five per cent increase in the fire insurance premiums of Corsicana residents will be effective after March 1 according to the announcement of Fire Insurance Commissioner Marvin Hall in Austin Wednesday afternoon that this city would have only a five per cent credit this year.

For the past year or more Corsicana had received a ten per cent good fire record credit based on the ratio of insured losses to the amount of premiums paid on policies.

Local officials and observers for the most part were at a loss to understand the increased rates because total insured losses reported in 1938 were approximately $28,000 and were lower than the $35,000 for the first year of the five-year comparative period on which the credits were based last year.

Some indicated however that even with the five per cent less credit premiums would not be materially increased because of the lowering of rates in the past two years of approximately twenty-five per cent. One insurer, however, suggested the smaller premiums under the lowered rate might have been responsible for the trimming of the good fire record credit.

HOPKINS AND MURPHY SEEKING HARMONY; WESTERN SENATORS SAY PRESIDENT IGNORES THEM

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—(P)—President Roosevelt's newest cabinet members—Harry L. Hopkins and Frank Murphy—were reported by usually well-informed persons today to be working for harmony between the White House and dissident democratic senators.

Hopkins and Murphy, it was said, are concerned lest differences in democratic ranks bring a republican victory in 1940.

Hopkins is a close White House adviser and also is friendly with many opposition senators, some politicians expressed belief he might go far toward finding a common meeting ground for divergent party factions.

Murphy's first effort toward party harmony, authoritative reports said, may be a recommendation that the chief executive appoint Harold M. Stephens of Utah to succeed the retired Justice Brandeis on the Supreme Court.

Stephens now is a member of the District of Columbia. Several western senators have been urging that a man from their section be named.

The party differences were emphasized when the western senators disclosed they would make no recommendations for the high court appointment.

Said Senator Clark (D-Mo): "The President never has paid attention to the wishes of the west."

GROUP EAST TEXAS SENATORS DENOUNCE HIWAY APPOINTMENT

MOST BITTER ATTACK ON ACTION OF GOVERNOR SINCE INAUGURATION

AUSTIN, Feb. 16.—(P)—A group of senators from East Texas in scathing language today denounced appointment of J. C. Hunter of Abilene as state highway commissioner by W. Lee O'Daniel and indicated a fight against confirmation would be waged.

In rapid succession, senators arose and criticized the governor's action as bad public policy and an insult to East Texas.

One termed the governor a "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," another charged he was not cooperating with the legislature but was trying to create a breach and "make war" on legislators.

A third asserted all Texas had "been sleeping in the face" of a conservative movement.

Still another, fiery Joe Hill of Henderson, charged the governor had "deliberately misled the people of Texas." He asserted the chief executive was a "damnable double barreled hypocrite, wind jammer and political liar."

First to spring to the governor's defense was Sen. Wilbourne Collier of Eastland who said Hunter was one of the really big men of Texas and sectionalism should not be considered in the appointment.

It was the most bitter assault of an action of Governor O'Daniel by members of an individual member since his inauguration Jan. 17.

Conservative Note.

One senator from East Texas, A. M. Allen, Jr., of El Paso, struck a conservative note, declaring that while he believed an East Texas senator should have been named, nevertheless the senate should consider only two things in all appointments: 1. Whether the appointee was qualified, and, 2. Whether he was capable.

The charge was made also that Gov. O'Daniel had selected the appointee to the position but rejected by the senate, had threatened East Texas senators that unless they reconsider action against him a West Texas would be appointed.

Senator Will D. Pace of Tyler led off the fireworks, declaring Gov. O'Daniel had given the people of Texas "a kick in the seat of the pants."

In a critical speech by Senator John Reddick of Lufkin, Senator Pace inquired:

"Isn't it a fact that the man the governor selected as secretary wrote a letter saying 'I would double-cross his best friend'?"

Reddick replied he did not know "about that."

Senator Joe Hill of Henderson interjected:

"I saw the letter."

Against Good Public Policy.

Reddick asserted everyone knows it is against good public policy to have two members of the ins-

BRITAIN GENERALLY PLEASED AT PROGRAM FOR REARMAMENT

GERMANY TAKES A SHARP THRUST AT UNITED STATES OVER THE MATTER

LONDON, Feb. 16.—(P)—Announcement of the vast increase in Britain's rearmament drive was welcomed here today, but in Germany it produced a sharp thrust at the United States.

Chancellor Hitler's own newspaper, Voelkischer Beobachter, scored the United States for "increasing international tension" by selling war materials to European countries.

Presumably the newspaper referred to the sale of airplanes to Britain and France.

Commenting on the announcement to parliament by Sir John Simon, chancellor of the exchequer, that British rearmament this year would cost $2,800,000,000, an increase of $875,000,000, Voelkischer Beobachter regretted the tempo of rearming.

REGIONAL HONORS AT STAKE IN NEXT WEEK'S TOURNEYS

SIX OF EIGHT FINALISTS LAST YEAR REMAIN IN FIGHT LEAGUE CROWN

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Staff

A topsy-turvy schoolboy basketball race rolled toward its quarterfinal round today with six of the eight teams that went to the state tournament still in the running but with the defending champion Woodrow Wilson outfit facing an uphill struggle.

Gone from the picture were John Reagan of Houston, rated next to Woodrow Wilson last year, and Bailey, the North Texas power. Also in the discard was the Cashing team that loomed as the class of East Texas before ineligibility struck it low.

Woodrow Wilson plays Sunset for the Dallas city champions today, the latter squaring it with the defending champion.

Abilene, hailed as the outstanding West Texas team, Carey Cardinals, perennial El Paso champions; Kingsville from the deep south, and Belton of central Texas were other teams from last year's state tournament remaining in the running.

Engaged in Playoffs Kingsville and Bowie already were engaged in district title playoffs.

Defeat of Bailey was an outstanding upset. The team, strong enough to split a series with the highly-favored Abilene outfit, lost the county title to Gober which had not shown to the advantage of the Bailey outfit in the practice grind.

Abilene, which lost but two games to high school team in the state, rolled up 566 points to 384 in 10 tilts.

Bowie won the El Paso title and starts a three-game series with Yuleta today for the district championship.

Kingsville won the district class A crown and opens a series with Mathis, the class B representative, tonight.

Chauffeur Victim Armed Hi-Jackers Early Wednesday

City officers were reported engaged Wednesday in the investigation of the armed robbery of Jesse Newsome, negro chauffeur for Mrs. Charles H. Mills. Details were not immediately available at police headquarters because Newsome reportedly took Mrs. Mills to Dallas early in the day.

From other sources it was learned that Newsome was walking west in the 500 block on West First Avenue when two men drove up to the curb and inquired the way to Dallas, and then asked him for a match. When he complied with the second request the men reportedly held a gun on him and removed about $17 from him. He then made his way to a filling station about a block away and called officers. Filling station attendants said the negro reported the men had the license plate number of the car turned up at the time of the robbery to the numbers were illegible.

Two negroes were arrested early Tuesday morning by Chief of Detectives M. G. Griffin in connection with the theft of two gallons of oil from the Vandergriff Filling station at Highway 75 and East First Avenue. The oil was recovered and the negroes released to county authorities.

A negro was arrested by city officers for county authorities on an assault complaint Tuesday morning when a young white boy charged with theft of a pair of second-hand shoes from a downtown store was picked up by city officers and later released to his parents.

In the Corsicana Corporation court Wednesday morning, one person was charged with running over a stop sign, one of making a right turn on a red light without stopping, one of intoxication and one of theft.

Ships are to be decided this week. Next week eight regional titles will be determined, the winners going to Austin for the state tournament.

District tournaments other than the Kingsville Mathis and Bowie-Yuleta play-offs are: Pampa, Lubbock, Childress; Region 2-Big Spring, Breckenridge, San Angelo, Brownwood; Region 3-Wichita Falls, Fort Worth, Dallas, Waco; Region 4-Corpus Christi, Tyler, Nacogdoches; Region 5-College Station, Huntsville, Galveston, Port Arthur; Region 6-Uvalde, San Antonio, Georgetown, Lockhart; Region 7-Victoria, Laredo, San Benito; Region 8-Fort Stockton, Midland, Van Horn.

The Kingsville-Mathis winner enters the Region 7 tournament. The Bowie-Yuleta winner plays in the Region 8 meet.

No. 16.
Capital Gains and Losses.

Section 117 of the Revenue Act of 1938, dealing with the manner or method of taking into account in the computation of net income the gains or losses resulting from the sale or other disposition of capital assets as computed and recognized under sections 111, 112, and 113, incorporates a new principle into the income-tax law by the separate treatment accorded to "short-term" and "long-term" gains and losses.

Section 117 (a) defines "capital assets" as property held by the taxpayer (whether or not connected with his trade or business) but not including stock in trade of the taxpayer or other property of a kind which would properly be included in the inventory of a taxpayer if on hand at the close of the taxable year, or property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business, OR PROPERTY USED IN THE TRADE OR BUSINESS OF A CHARTERED CARRIER WHICH IS SUBJECT TO THE ALLOWANCE FOR DEPRECIATION PROVIDED IN SECTION 23 (L). (The capitalized portion of the above definition is new in the Revenue Act of 1938 and the only change from the definition of "capital assets" as contained in the Revenue Act of 1936.)

Section 117 (a) also contains the following definitions of terms, new in the Revenue Act of 1938:

(a) "Short-term capital gain" means gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for not more than 18 months, if and to the extent such gain is taken into account in computing net income;

(b) "Short-term capital loss" means loss from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for not more than 18 months, if and to the extent such loss is taken into account in computing net income;

(c) "Long-term capital gain" means gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for more than 18 months, if and to the extent such gain is taken into account in computing net income;

(d) "Long-term capital loss" means loss from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for more than 18 months, if and to the extent such loss is taken into account in computing net income;

(e) "Net short-term capital gain" means the excess of short-term capital gains for the taxable year over the sum of (A) short-term capital losses for the taxable year, plus (B) the net short-term capital loss of the preceding taxable year, to the extent brought forward to the taxable year under subsection (e);

(f) "Net short-term capital loss" means the excess of short-term capital losses for the taxable year over the short-term capital gains for such year;

(g) "Net long-term capital

gain" means the excess of long-term capital gains for the taxable year over the long-term capital losses for such year;

(h) "Net long-term capital loss" means the excess of long-term capital losses for the taxable year over the long-term capital gains for such year.

Section 117 (b) provides that in the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, only the following percentages of the gain or loss recognized upon the sale or exchange of a capital asset shall be taken into account in computing net income: (1) 50 per cent if the capital asset has been held for not more than 18 months; (2) 25 per cent if the capital asset has been held for more than 18 months but not more than 24 months; (3) 25 per cent if the capital asset has been held for more than 24 months.

Section 117 (c) provides for an alternative tax in the case of a net long-term capital gain of a taxpayer other than a corporation, in lieu of the tax imposed by sections 11 and 12 of the Act, if, and only if, such alternative tax is less than the tax imposed by sections 11 and 12.

Section 117 (d) provides that the alternative tax is the sum of (1) a partial tax, computed at the rates provided by sections 11 and 12, on the net income of the taxpayer, excluding therefrom the net long-term capital gain, plus (2) 30 per cent of the net long-term capital gain. An alternative tax in the case of a net long-term capital gain of a taxpayer other than a corporation is provided in subsection (c) of section 117 in lieu of the tax imposed by sections 11 and 12, if available, if, and only if, such tax is greater than the tax imposed by sections 11 and 12 and is arrived at by computing the excess of (1) a tax, computed at the rates provided by sections 11 and 12, on the net income of the taxpayer, including for this purpose the amount of such net long-term capital gain, over (2) 30 per cent of the net long-term capital gain.

Section 117 (e) contains the limitations on deductions of capital losses. In the case of corporations, losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets are allowable as deductions only to the extent of $2,000 plus the gains from such sales or exchanges, except that in the case of certain banks or trust companies, the limitation is $10,000. In the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, short-term capital losses are allowable as deductions only to the extent of short-term capital gains, that is, losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for 18 months or less are allowable as deductions only to the extent of gains from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for not more than 18 months.

Section 117 (f) provides that any taxpayer (other than a corporation) who in any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1927, sustains a net short-term capital loss, shall be entitled to carry forward as a deduction available in the next succeeding taxable year against net short-term capital gains realized in such succeeding year, the amount of such net short-term capital loss (in any amount not in excess of his net income for the year in which such loss is realized) in such succeeding year, the amount of such net short-term capital loss, the taxable year next succeeding that in which the loss is realized, and hence the amount of the carryover may not be included in the taxable year in which the capital loss which can be carried over to the next succeeding taxable year.

Provisions relating to corporations are unchanged. As in the Revenue Act of 1936, the percentage provisions are not applicable to corporations. They deduct capital losses to the extent of $2,000 plus the capital gains.

Section 117 (1) provides that amounts realized upon the retirement of corporate bonds and similar evidences of corporate indebtedness (including those issued by a government or a political subdivision thereof, with interest coupons or in registered form, shall be considered as amounts received in exchange therefor, thereby giving to any gain or loss resulting to the holder the status of capital gain or loss, as the case may be.

Section 117 (g) provides that gains or losses from (a) "short sales" of property and (b) gains or losses attributable to the failure to exercise privileges or options to buy or sell property, shall be considered as gains or losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets. In the former the percentage of the gain or loss to be taken into account is to be computed according to the period for which the property delivered was held. In the latter the gains or losses are to be considered as short-term capital gains or losses.

Section 117 (h) prescribes the rules for determining the period for which a capital asset has been held. These provisions are in general to the effect that, where property is acquired in an exchange and the property so acquired retains the old basis on which to compute gain or loss; or where property is acquired from another person and retains the same basis on which to compute gain or loss as it had in the hands of the person from whom

CORSICANA, TEX., FEB. 17, 1939

NEW CCC PLANS

There is said to be growing sentiment in Congress for making the CCC a permanent institution and adding military training to its present program. Congressional approval of the suggestion no doubt reflects public approval. The Civilian Conservation Corps has proved to be such a useful and constructive organization that most Americans want to see its works go on.

Set up in the first place to give thousands of unemployed young fellows something to do that would not only improve their morale and health but would be useful in itself, the CCC has done even more. The fifth annual report of Director Fechner, presented last May, told the amazing amount of work done for the national forest service in planting trees, building fire lookouts and observation towers, cutting needed truck trails, and so on. The CCC boys helped also in soil conservation work, in insect pest and rodent elimination, and a number of other jobs.

At the same time, they have filled up large gaps in their own education, studying common school subjects, receiving vocational training, increasing their understanding of citizenship with its obligations and privileges. There has been no military training. Up to now the public wholly opposed all thought of it.

The present proposal is not to make the CCC camps into military institutions, but to give these boys some of the discipline and drill which will train them to take care of themselves in emergencies, to do a good job when sudden organization is required, and so on. So long as the civilian attributes are not penalized, such training may be considered wise.

WEATHER AND GOVERNMENT

No doubt weather affects people's health and activities. We have all noticed examples of it. But can rain and heat cycles create such social and political phenomena as dictatorships? Dr. Raymond H. Wheeler of the University of Kansas thinks so. He has been studying people, trees and weather over a period of 5,000 years.

The periods of greatest human activity, notably war eras, he finds, coincide with warm-moist periods, when storms and other natural phenomena are most violent. He finds indications that the climate of the world as a whole is now about half way down on the curve from hot to cold. So he looks for a breakdown of dictatorships during the next five or ten years, and a revival of democracies, with emphasis on individualism.

The dictators, then, will soon be on the skids. Meteorology is the ideology for us.

But what if the dictators refuse to believe in weather signs?

Seems as if, with those increasing buffalo herds, there should be some buffalo robes again. And then there might be some sleighs to use 'em in, and some horses and bells and girls, and so on.

Adolf better be careful about that Ukraine project; the Bear That Walks Like a Man still packs a wallop.

It isn't military valor to bomb helpless fugitives. There's no honor in mechanizing warfare.

QUESTIONS

And what is you and what is I?
And it it really death to die?
And after all life's growing pains
Just what departs and what remains?

To these who can full answer give
Or tell us what it means to live?

That which I think of now as you
Is made of all the deeds you do;
Your home, your garden and the things
To which always your spirit clings;

Your loves, your hates, your hopes and fears
And all the fruitage of the years.
That which I hope lives here as I
Is not the stuff we know must die.

But something done, or something said;
In spring a flowering tulip bed
And whosoever I've trod the earth
Some little evidence of birth.

Life is to feel and sense and share
As, has been said: "To be aware!"
And death, is wood and stone and
And flesh at last that cannot feel.

But what was truly you and I
Outlives the flesh that has to die.

CHOPPING WOOD

Maybe what this country needs—or the world, for that matter—is more wood-chopping. Sawing is all right, too, but less effective spiritually. You can get more action out of an ax.

It stirs up the dregs in a fellow's system, says an addict, and sort of whisks them out into empty space. Then it attracts spiritual currents from somewhere or other, and recharges your battery and fills your mind with noble sentiments. There is a grand feeling in seeing the woodpile grow. And how you sleep afterwards!

We've heard city fellows back from a camp in the woods talk like that.

They might be just putting up a he-man bluff, of course. A normal man can't help thinking they wouldn't like it so much if there were no vacation spiriting in it—if they really had to chop the darned stuff. But when a farmer talks that way, a real farmer who burns wood the year 'round and cuts it himself, you've got to listen respectfully. He surely wouldn't lie about it, especially when he was talking to a reporter. Well, this farmer says:

"There's not an appetizer in the drugstore that can compare with swinging an ax before your own woodpile and watching it grow. And does it make a grand fire!"

"Neighbor, do you know the flame and the odor of beech and pine, the fragrance of cedarwood burning, the pleasant smell and crackle of hickory? And what if you do get a little smoke? It's an appetizing smell. What this country needs is more woodlots, and more farmers chopping the trees down and chopping them up. And city folks need it more than farmers."

We haven't a doubt of it—not a doubt in the world. Just suppose, now, that Hitler and Stalin and Mussolini and all such strong-arm fellows were chopping trees down and chopping 'em up. Wouldn't this be a better world.

SPEED

Sound in the air travels about 1100 feet a second. A Curtiss airplane in Buffalo the other day flew at the rate of 575 miles an hour, which would be a mile in 6 1-4 seconds, about 850 feet a second.

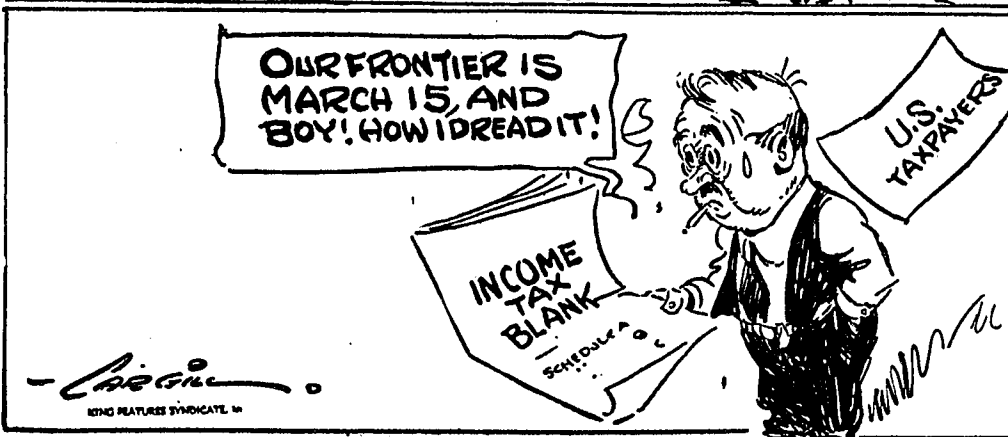

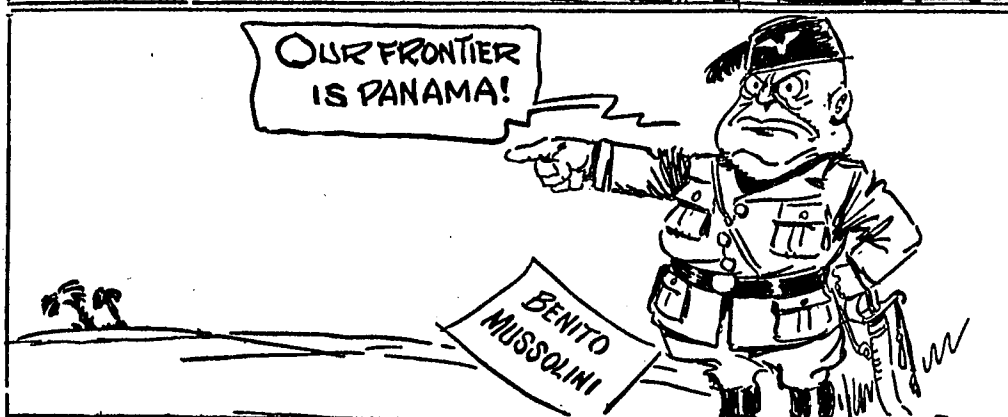

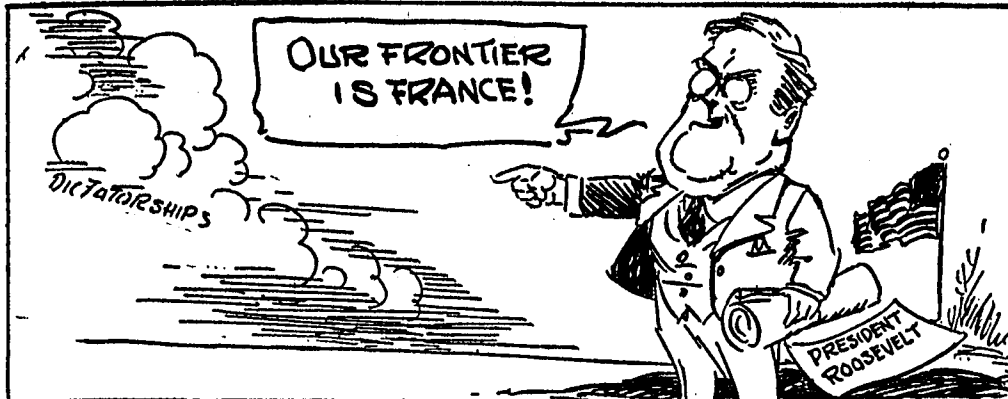

Thus that plane was going almost as fast as sound. It makes a person wonder whether our aeronautics engineers and pilots will yet be able to push their planes up to the velocity of sound waves. If that were done, the roar of the propeller would not sound ahead of the plane at all; the plane would be silent till it passed with the noise trailing after it.

Would it hurt the pilot? Not unless he hit something. Scientists believed a hundred years ago that motion faster than 35 miles an hour would be fatal.

Another crimp in private enterprise—with the new police radio system, the hold-up man has no chance at all.

Uncle Sam's a good egg, but not a soft-boiled one.

THE FRONTIERSMEN

SELLING WAR PLANES

Most Americans will not get excited about our airplane factories selling modern warplanes to France, even if there is some opposition to the procedure in Congress. It is not clear that, as one senator says, this is "equivalent to a military alliance."

We have sold warplanes to Japan for use in her war against China, and we were certainly not allying ourselves with Japan. That procedure has fortunately been discontinued, because Japan was using those planes indirectly against our own interests. But to shut off such supplies from a friendly and co-operative nation like France or Britain, in the present situation, would hardly make sense.

We ourselves, like the European democracies, are threatened by the dictatorship nations, though less directly at present. And we may as well realize that France is our own first line of defense, with Britain a close second. If Nazi Germany and Fascist Italy ran amuck, and crushed France, Britain would be an easier prey. Then if they crushed Britain, where would we be?

France is the keystone of the arch of democratic defense, and we can well afford to help strengthen it in so natural and legitimate a way as this.

Incidentally we seem to be in the way of getting modern warplanes for our own home defense as fast as we need them.

They've got to make the fines big to convince people that smuggling is a crime. It seems so innocent and justifiable when a fellow is doing it.

A fellow just back from Florida says it's the first vacation he's taken in 30 years. He probably didn't like it. You have to train for loafing.

It must be great to be a U. S. senator, and keep people you dislike out of public office by saying they're "personally obnoxious" to you.

Regardless of what the groundhog saw on February 2, the seed catalogues are out and spring can't be far behind.

The French may say once too often that "Italians won't fight."

You can't lick dictators by calling 'em names; they thrive on it.

Life used to be prunes and prisms; now it's cults and fads.

Three Major Real Estate Deals Are Completed in City

Three big real estate transactions have been completed in Corsicana recently and at least two of them will result in extensive reconstruction in coming months.

One of the largest was the purchase by the Dr. Pepper Bottling Company from Fred M. Allison of the entire north half of the 400 block on North Beaton street. The bottling company obtained frontage on Beaton East Second Avenue, and North Commerce street by the deal. Approximately half of the lot is now covered by buildings while the other portion is fenced and has a few sheds on it.

A. H. Montgomery of the Dr. Pepper company has announced that studies have been started by his firm preliminary to the preparation of plans for one of the most modern bottling plants in the state. Both of the present structures will be remodelled and rebuilt and the plant equipped throughout with the latest type machinery. Work is not expected to start before late in the summer months with occupancy scheduled early in the winter.

The building now occupied by the Prince and Pelham Filling Station at the corner of North Main and West Collin street was purchased recently by the partnership of Butler and Calman and studies are now under way for improvements to the property. Work is expected to start soon after the expiration of the contract of the present lessee early in the fall.

Another transaction was the acquisition by James Cerf of the Marks building in the 100 block on North Beaton street now occupied by the McAllen store. The property was purchased from A. E. Marks et al.

Kerens Pioneer Club In Session Friday At Home Mrs. A. Talley

KERENS, Feb. 14.—(Spl.)—Another meeting of the Kerens Pioneer club was held Friday at 3 p. m., with Mrs. Anna Daniel and Mrs. Andrew Talley, hostesses, in the home of the latter.

The business portion of the meeting Mrs. L. H. Carroll read a letter of thanks from Mrs. E. M. Westbrook of Bryan for the lovely party given presented her by the club upon her moving from the city.

It was voted to send the $5 assessment made by the State Federation Women's Club building at Austin, although the local club had given generously and in excess of the $101 paid by so many clubs in the past few years for retirement of the debt on the building.

After reading of the minutes and reports of committees, roll call was answered with "Modern Story and Author."

Mrs. G. H. Wileman then took charge as leader and presented a review of "Preview" by Richard Sherman, which proved a very interesting and intriguing short story of recent date.

As to many of the modern stories, the conclusion was left to the imagination of the hearers and a round-table discussion of possible and probable endings was enjoyed.

Concluding the afternoon's entertainment, Mrs. Wade Price and Mrs. A. S. Pritchard played as a piano duet, Overture from the "Foot and Pant," by Von Suppe. Guests other than club members were Mrs. Will Talley, Mrs. Allen McCluney, Mrs. Joe Everett, Mrs. H. W. Hoffer and Mrs. W. T. Stockton. A sweet course was served with hot tea during the social hour.

Independence Club.
Kerens, Feb. 14.—(Spl.)—The Independence Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. J. W. Scarborough at the last meeting date on February 6, with an attendance of 15 members, and one new member who was welcomed at this time.

Questions for baby chicks was the chief subject under discussion, and a number of good suggestions were made.

Several enjoyable games, and the necessary business had been attended to, club adjourned to meet with Mrs. W. C. Reed on February 20. Mrs. Scarborough and daughter, Miss Beuna Vieta, served delicious punch and cake, before the departure of the guests.

Japan Plans To Hold Island On Military Ground

TOKYO, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Foreign Minister Hachiro Arida today told Sir Robert Leslie Craigie, British ambassador, Japan probably would hold Hainan Island until the end of the Chinese war and possibly indefinitely on grounds of military necessity.

This was virtually the same reply Arida gave the French ambassador, Charles Andre Honory, yesterday, when Honory asked for information on Japan's plans with regard to the island, which is near French Indo-China and the British colony at Hongkong.

Sources close to the French embassy predicted France would be dissatisfied with Arida's reply, but it was doubted that she would attempt any action to oust the Japanese.

HONGKONG, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Japanese naval and aviation units landed at dawn today at Yulin, Kan, at the southern tip of Hainan, the Chinese island near British and French empire lines, whose preliminary occupation Friday brought French and British diplomatic inquiries about Japanese intentions.

(The United States destroyer John D. Edwards, with Captain John T. G. Stapler, commander of the United States navy's China patrol, aboard, arrived from Hongkong today at Hainan, north Hainan port, to investigate and, if necessary, protect American lives and interests on Hainan.)

The landing placed the Japanese navy in a potential base 750 miles due west of Luzon, the principal island of the Philippines.

An official statement said that by noon Japanese landing forces had penetrated 15 miles inland with a rapidity that indicated an apparent lack of Chinese resistance to the invaders' occupation of the Sama Bay area—generally considered among the Far East's potentially best although currently undeveloped deep water harbors.

Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. Pays $23,000,000

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Feb. 14.—(AP)—The New Jersey Title Guaranty and Trust Co., which had been open today and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation announced it would pay claims of approximately $23,000,000, the largest pay-off of insured deposits it has ever made.

FDIC Chairman Leo T. Crowley said more than 39,000 depositors would be reimbursed.

"The bank has been working for some time with supervisory authorities to develop a program that would relieve its frozen condition, which resulted from the accumulation of large holdings of real estate and other illiquid assets. Their efforts to restore a reasonable degree of liquidity were unsuccessful," Crowley declared.

Former United States Senator John Milton was special counsel to the bank. He said he had been engaged for the past month "in connection with certain efforts" to prevent its closing.

Governor A. Harry Moore was listed among 17 directors of the bank, which had total resources of $31,298,478 as of last Dec. 31.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—(AP)—The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation said today the approximately $23,000,000 to be paid depositors of a closed Jersey City bank would be a sum larger than any paid out in any year since the FDIC was created in 1933.

Last year deposits in 55 insured banks which were closed amounted to only $10,785,000.

In the last four years total payoffs in insured banks amounted to slightly more than $47,000,000.

SUCCESS ACHIEVED COMBATTING TYPHOID FEVER IS STRESSED

CONTAMINATED DRINKING WATER PROLIFIC SOURCES OF DREADED DISEASE

AUSTIN, Feb. 16.—(Sp.)—"Perhaps no more convincing example of the value of applied public health measures exists than the success achieved in combating typhoid fever," declares Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer.

In 1900 typhoid fever mortality in the United States totaled 35,000. In terms of illness, this meant that approximately 350,000 persons, or out of ten, contracted typhoid fever in that year.

"Since then typhoid fever death rates in the urban centers have steadily declined. Texas cities and communities are reporting less and less typhoid due to mass control in purifying water and milk supplies, providing adequate sewage disposal, and widespread typhoid vaccination.

The rural areas of Texas are still beset with the typhoid problem, however, as shown by the fact that the greatest per cent of typhoid in 1937 were from the rural districts.

Contaminated drinking water is a potent source of typhoid in rural areas. Protecting the water supply against pollution from underground seepage and surface drainage is fundamental. If the supply is a well, the top should be made of concrete and the casing watertight from the top down to the compact soil. A solid base pump should be installed in such a manner that it will prevent any contamination entering from the top. Where a cistern is used, the same care should be exercised to prevent any outside dirt pollution from reaching the supply.

A second and important source of typhoid fever is the fly. Having access to the food, the germ of typhoid fever in milk and food.

In this connection, it is essential that the rural dweller maintain a sanitary privy. This may be in the form of a septic tank or a pit privy. The point is, however, that it should be fly-tight. If it is not, the present is an ideal time to take the necessary precautions and thereby anticipate the typhoid fever season. Moreover, the privy should be located in such a way that it will not endanger the source of drinking water; preferably, it should be at least 100 feet away from the water supply. Typhoid fever by your family doctor is economical, safe and sure. Everyone should give attention to this important preventive measure before the advent of the typhoid season, for certain protection in rural areas, and on vacation.

GOVERNOR O'DANIEL NAMES ABILENE MAN TO HIGHWAY BODY

SURPRISED STATE SENATORS HAVE ANOTHER APPOINTMENT PROBLEM ON HANDS

AUSTIN, Feb. 16.—(P)—Surprised state senators today had another of Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel's "Eit-out-of-the-blue" appointments on their hands—Judge J. C. Hunter of Abilene as chairman of the state highway commission.

The independent oil man and prominent civic leader of West Texas, informed himself only yesterday of the governor's intentions, was appointed in a sudden move that ended speculation clouding the capitol for two weeks after the senate's refusal to confirm Carr P. Collins.

Observers felt it was a certainty the governor would appoint an East Texan, since it was reportedly on grounds that Collins was not an East Texan because of his Dallas residence, that he was refused confirmation by the senate.

The custom has long been to have the presentation of the West, South and North Texas on the commission, the vacancy now existing having been created by expiration of John Wood's term. He was an East Texan.

The appointment of Hunter was hidden. Senator John S. Reddick of Lufkin said he felt the appointment gave West Texas two members of the commission.

"The constitution says the governor shall make an appointment with the advice and consent of the senate. The governor did not advise with me, nor did I advise with him on the appointment of Mr. Hunter," Collins said.

Other senator whose advice he sought on the appointment. In view of this fact, I will exercise my right under the constitution to have the presentation of the West, South and North Texas on the commission, the vacancy now existing having been created by expiration of John Wood's term. He was an East Texan.

Thought Collins East Texan. He explained he had attempted to appoint what he thought was an East Texan in Collins, but that the senate had rejected him on regional grounds.

The governor said he had been besieged by West Texans and deemed it his duty to "now submit a man from West Texas."

He said West Texans informed him that Henry Zines, present member of the commission, had moved from West Texas, "or at least lives in Dallas much of the time, and they consider the action of the senate in selecting him as an appointment on regional grounds corroborates their contention and they are now doubly insistent on having a commissioner appointed from West Texas."

Governor O'Daniel said "we have good men from every section of Texas and my only desire is to try and deal fairly with every section."

News of County Home Demonstration Clubs

Oak Valley

The saving of steps in the kitchen by correct placing of furnishing equipment was demonstrated by Miss Clara E. Rettiger at a meeting of the Oak Valley Home Demonstration Club in the home of Mrs. W. B. Owen, Feb. 13.

Planning a kitchen the room should be large enough for the placing of pieces of equipment on all walls. Equipment used in the same kind of work should be grouped together. To provide cheer some suggestions were: papering walls, painting woodwork and furnishings, washing windows and providing bright curtains and a pot of geraniums or other flowers.

After the contest game was played directed by Mrs. A. S. Fulton refreshments of chicken salad, crackers, salted pecans, divinity candy and coffee was served to 11 members and 11 visitors.

Two new members were Mrs. C. E. Williams and Mrs. John Bennett. Visitors were Mesdames Melgh Owen, Colleen Owen, Mac Romans, O. K. Vinson, Rufus Pevchoune, Charles Love, John Sloan, C. E. Bell, R. H. Beale, V. K. Harris and Mrs. Sloan Rea.

The club will meet next with Mrs. Cowden February 22—Reporter.

Corbet Club Kitchen centers was discussed by Miss Clara Rettiger, home demonstration agent, Tuesday afternoon at the Corbet Home Demonstration Club, Feb. 14, at the home of Mrs. J. L. Womack.

There are two things we want to accomplish: (1) cheer; to do this we may touch up old places of furniture, paper the walls and paint the woodwork. Add new or freshly laundered curtains and flowers; (2) Convenience, study the room, place all equipment close together, and near a sink, as possible. Plan to have all equipment moveable.

Miss Rettiger continued by saying that there are four centers and to have a well equipped kitchen one must try to carry out the following: (1) the preparation center, should consist of a work table, or cabinet sink, place to keep liners, collarer, strainer, apple cores, vassels, etc.; (2) serving center: A table large enough to hold dishes to be used in serving the meal; (3) cleaning away, or dish washing center; (4) storage center: A refrigerator, other in cabinet waste, taken to the garbage and dishes to be washed taken to the sink. Retrace all four steps and put away articles. Arrange all equipment as close to sink as possible.

An oblong or rectangular kitchen is more desirable than the square one as the equipment can be more easily arranged.

Miss Rettiger gave a demonstration of cake being baked in both the oblong and square kitchen, showing the steps and time saved in a well planned kitchen and one that was not planned.

The hostess, Mrs. J. L. Womack assisted by Mrs. T. C. Baggett served refreshments of cake, home-made candy and grapejuice to fourteen members.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. T. C. Baggett, February 28. All members are urged to be present—Reporter.

Pursley 4-H Club. "The more vegetables we eat the healthier we'll be," said Miss Clara E. Rettiger, Home Demonstration agent, to the Pursley 4-H Club Thursday, Feb. 9th, 1938, on the subject of the Pursley school building.

Miss Rettiger gave out garden plans to be filled out by each member of the club. She also recommended good brands of seeds, and gave out plans for raising many different kinds of vegetables in their gardens this year.

Billie B. Stiles, president, appointed a committee to choose a girl to be leader of each meeting.

The following members were present: Lometa Lasley, Louise Gunn, Kneet Benfield, Beth Finch, Hettie Brown, Mary Hellums, Imogene Shell, Jennie Bunn, Rose Cooper, Billie Hellums, Al Jean Lasley, Addie Taylor, Jewell Dowd, Bibbie C. Brim, Louise Pearson and Sera Cooper.

is levied just as if John had bought the goods for cash. John must also make allowances for the cost of transport across the ocean and to his farm.

When John signs his proposal, the consul sends it to Germany, which decides whether it needs the products offered.

If it decides in the affirmative, it determines whether shipping the products might disturb Germany's market here or elsewhere. If it agrees John can have the goods he wants, the deal is closed. John then ships his wheat to a designated port, where it is put on a German ship and carried to the reich. Then the credit is applied to the purchase of the farm machinery and barbed wire, which is shipped over in a German vessel.

The Germans have been advocating this type of trade, but Hjalmar Schacht, former president of their reichsbank, says it is barbarous, and Secretary Hull believes it is medieval.

Blooming Grove Hi-School Class Discusses Taxes

BLOOMING GROVE, Feb. 16.—(Sp.)—The Blooming Grove High School civics class under the direction of C. T. Warrington recently took a survey of some of Governor W. Lee O'Daniel's proposals. After considerable discussion in the class, with the class decidedly against O'Daniel's transaction tax, and strongly in favor of the sales tax, it was decided to send out a questionnaire to all of the parents of children in the Blooming Grove schools. 380 questionnaires were sent out; returns were made on 98.

On the first question, "Do you favor the transaction tax as proposed by Governor O'Daniel?" 120 were in favor of it, 84 were opposed, and 14 had no answer.

On the second question, "Do you favor the abolition of the state ad valorem tax?" 114 were in favor of the abolition, 82 were opposed, and 22 had no answer.

An question No. 3, "Do you think that a sales tax would be a better way of raising the money for old age pensions?" 82 were in favor of the sales tax, 100 were opposed, and 30 failed to answer.

There was also a place to sign if a person cared to and 238 were signed and 80 were not signed.

Therefore, as a conclusion from this survey it will be seen that while the civics class itself were opposed to Mr. O'Daniel's plan that the majority of the folks returning answers were in favor of the plan as suggested by the governor. O'Daniel had a clear majority on all of the questions as submitted and seems to have about the same popularity as he had at the time of his election.

HITLER CHRISTENS NEW GERMAN FIGHTER AT HAMBURG TUESDAY

PRaises IRON CHANCELLOR FOR LAYING FOUNDATION OF PRESENT GERMANY

HAMBURG, Feb. 14.—(P)—Germany's Fuehrer saw the Reich's newest and greatest battleship slide down the ways bearing the name of Bismarck today and declared the Iron Chancellor's hopes had triumphed at last—through Adolf Hitler.

Before 50,000 hailing Nazi dignitaries and onlookers Hitler seized the opportunity of christening the ship the same kind of a man as himself—destined by providence to be a lonely figure fighting against a world of obstacles.

The spirit of Bismarck, he said, should shine before the eyes of those who man the new 35,000-ton warship—which is another advance of nazidom's self-styled "road to destiny" for 1939.

He said Bismarck stood forth among all others who helped create the "preconditions for the present day greater Germany."

"It was a fight which only he can appreciate who himself has been compelled to face such a world of obstacles."

Hitler said destruction of the German fleet after the world war "even today grips painfully at our hearts and shoulders that national state of the nation out of its rut and led it to new domestic and foreign successes."

For these successes, he said, the nation owed deep gratitude to the men creating the preconditions for the Third Reich.

He declared Bismarck "not only created the German Reich of his day, but also the conditions on which the present day German state of people could be reared."

His speech was heard by 50,000 cheering Nazi officials and spectators at the Blohm and Voss shipyards where the christening ceremony was held.

The christening was performed by Countess Dorothea Von Lowenfeld, granddaughter of Bismarck.

Barbar Gally Bedecked.

Hitler arrived at noon on the Free State of Hamburg government barge "Hamburg," which brought him slowly up the Elbe. The whole harbor was gaily flagged and all along the shore stood thousands gathered to witness the spectacle.

"From the very day of our taking over power," he said, "there began a recreation of German defense forces with the aid of which security of existence was to be vouchsafed our people."

"As the sharpest instrument of war it is to take under its protection the peace of true justice."

The Fuehrer then declared nazidom had evolved a "spiritual philosophy and organization for destroying from now on and for all future time the enemies of the Reich."

DEPUTY INTERNAL REVENUE COLLECTOR BE IN CORSICANA

Assistance of a deputy internal revenue collector will be available to residents of Corsicana and Navarro county early in March for those desiring aid in filling their income tax returns under the new law.

W. Thomas, collector for the second district of Texas, has announced that C. A. Gordon will be stationed in Corsicana in room 7 of the postoffice on March 1, 4, 11, 18, 25 and 31.

The collector said that the new income tax regulations presented many complicated problems to a layman and while the service was not mandatory he was glad to extend the courtesy to the citizens of this sector. He stated the assistance was rendered without charge and the office would be open from 8:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. on each of the specified days.

Mr. Thomas said that those needing the assistance of the government representative avail themselves of his services on March 1, 4 or 11 since there was a possibility that developments in other sections of the district might make it necessary to send the deputy collector to another point immediately prior to the deadline for filing, March 15.

Farm Program 1939 Being Explained to Control Officials

Leater Young and Shirley Head, both of the State AAA headquarters at College Station, were here Wednesday conducting a one-day school of instruction to county AAA officials and community committeemen relative to the 1939 farm program.

The committeemen from each community will in turn carry the information back to the farmers of their vicinities.

COLD WEATHER

(Continued From Page One) fed by additional rains and snow, were rising again today as an anti-cyclone to last weeks high waters which drove hundreds of residents from Lowland homes.

Government meteorologists predicted little danger in the upper Ohio valley, but in the lower valley, which has not yet received the crest of last weeks flood, the effect of the new rise remained in some doubt.

Five Missing on Pacific
LOS ANGELES, Feb. 16.—(P)—Five were missing today on the turbulent Pacific Ocean off Santa Monica as high winds continued to sweep southern California, indirectly causing the known death and bringing additional property damage.

Robert Welker, 10-year-old boy, was killed yesterday in the San Fernando valley when he attempted to cross a highway during a dust storm and was struck down by an automobile.

Coast guardsmen sought a 16-foot skiff and a 36-foot motorboat that put out from the Santa Monica pier yesterday before the wind came up and failed to return.

HOUSE DEMOCRATS HEARD COMPLAINTS PARTY CONFERENCE

NOT ENOUGH CO-OPERATION BETWEEN WHITE HOUSE AND DEMOCRATIC MEMBERS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14. (P)—House democrats were warned today that party dissension, including lack of co-operation between the White House and congress, threatened Democratic house members.

Some of those who attended said also there were open complaints of lack of co-operation between the White House and Democratic legislators.

Rep. Drewery of Virginia, chairman of the Democratic congressional campaign committee, reportedly attributed Democratic reverses to the "contention and lack of co-operation" between the executive and legislative branches and said President Roosevelt's "purge" activities in 1933 primaries had caused bitter feeling and had "planted resentment in the hearts of many members."

Complaints that there was not enough co-operation between the White House and congress were said to have come from Representatives Cox of Georgia and Randolph of West Virginia.

House leaders described the conference as a friendly gathering.

Majority Leader Rayburn said to have told the members he talked with the president yesterday and assured the chief executive the house action in slashing $150,000,000 from the relief bill was not intended as a "personal affront" to the president.

It was then that Randolph was said to have complained that the president "shouldn't have slapped house members in the face."

Winding up a request for the additional $150,000,000 for relief so soon after house action on the original relief measure.

Administration leaders in the house were said to have urged harmony and better attendance at house sessions. Majority Leader Rayburn of Texas said he thought the meeting would result in a larger turnout of party adherents at the daily sessions and particularly when important votes are scheduled.

Speeches Critical.

While some of speeches were described to reporters as having been critical in tone, several legislators said they had not been caustic and that apparently they were based on a desire to be helpful in obtaining a smoothly operating democratic machine in the house.

One democrat was reported to have assailed failure of the appropriations committee to bring the relief and independent offices appropriations measures to the floor in such shape that roll call votes could have been obtained on two issues on which the administration lost.

One was the $150,000,000 cut in WPA funds, the other the $17,000,000 reduction in the TVA appropriation.

As long as members are permitted to hide behind the anonymity of non-record votes, one democrat said, the administration will have trouble holding democrats in line.

One individual said Rayburn had attempted to impress on new members the importance of staying in town, being on the floor while the house is in session, and observing requests of the party whip organization.

At the party meeting preceded by a few minutes a session of the house at which an important phase of the president's national defense program was scheduled.

As the house debated the measure, to provide both personnel and equipment increases for the army, democratic leaders predicted the chamber would approve it without alteration, despite republican efforts to spread airplane purchases over the next three years.

"The legislation will go through," he said.

Democratic chieftains were taking no chances, however, of being caught off-guard. They called a conference of the 261 party members in an effort to prevent recurrence of recent republican successes in amending administration legislation.

The democrats expressed concern chiefly over keeping enough members on the floor always to have a majority.

More than a score of house democrats met last night to consider reviving the so-called "liberal bloc." They agreed to work with the administration in seeking greater party solidarity.

The defense bill covers only army phases of the general armament program. Its major provisions are:

1. Authorized purchase of 3,032 army planes and expansion of air force equipment and personnel, to cost about $800,000,000. (This would bring the air corps to 5,500 planes in 1941.)
2. Increases the authorized enlisted strength of the army air corps from 21,500 to 45,000 and the authorized commission strength of the regular army from 14,650 to 18,718 officers. Of these, 1,111 would be in the air corps.
3. Authorizes an appropriation of $23,750,000 to strengthen the Panama Canal defenses by providing an adequate peacetime garrison.
4. Allows the army to place 24,000,000 of educational orders to acquire private industry with production of munitions and other war materials.

Rep. Andrews (R-NY) senior minority member of the military committee, declared republican efforts to amend the bill would be concentrated chiefly on a proposal to let the army acquire only 1,000 planes a year for the next three years.

Republican Leader Martin of Massachusetts declared such was unnecessary on the ground that there was no threat of the United States soon becoming involved in a foreign war.

Count Paul Teleki accepted mandate to form new cabinet.

Pressure from Regent Admiral Nicholas Horthy gets results.

BUDAPEST, Feb. 16. (P)—Count Paul Teleki tonight was named premier of Hungary and announced he was retaining all ministers of the previous cabinet except Premier Bela Imredy.

Thus the net result of the two-day cabinet crisis was a ministry unchanged except for the shifting of the 60-year-old Count Teleki from the post of education minister to the premiership and the appointment of Balint Homan, a politician, to the education portfolio.

Count Teleki accepted the mandate of the recent Admiral Nicholas Horthy, to form a cabinet, after 24 hours of urging.

Anti-semitic Bela Imredy resigned yesterday, acknowledging he himself was of part Jewish ancestry.

Admiral Horthy was stated to have persuaded the count it was his patriotic duty to attempt to reconcile the factions which have been tying up legislative work by fighting over the Imredy program.

Imredy advocated curtailment of political rights of Jews, wanted to bar them from some work and limit their participation in other fields of employment.

His foreign minister negotiated Hungarian participation in the anti-comintern pact fostered by Italy, Germany and Japan, and despite the present political dispute, quarters close to the regent—who is the ruling head of state—said no change in this foreign policy was likely.

publication. It was understood to deal chiefly with a joint army-navy chief of last August. Barriers of foreign governments from planes destined for military use.

Meanwhile, there were these other developments in the national defense-foreign affairs situation:

1. The house passed yesterday 367 to 15, the bulk of President Roosevelt's $552,000,000 defense program. The bill authorizes $300,000,000 for air defenses, including 3,000 new army planes, $23,750,000 for Panama Canal defenses, and $34,500,000 for "educational orders" to private manufacturers. It now goes to the senate.
2. Senator Bridges (R-NH) said the military committee at his request had agreed to call in Hugh Wilson, ambassador to Germany, to report on conditions in Europe. Bridges said he had a "suspicion" Wilson's attitude was less pessimistic than that expressed recently by Joseph P. Kennedy and William C. Bullitt, ambassadors to London and Paris, respectively.
3. Senator Clark (D-Mo) appealed in a radio address for legislation to "tax profits out of war" and for more stringent neutrality laws.
4. Senator Barbour (R-NJ) proposed mandatory prison sentences for persons convicted of peacetime espionage or sabotage.

Chairman Sheppard (D-Tex) said the army expansion bill would go before the senate military committee tomorrow morning.

Mr. Kellam, accompanied by A. W. Brishin, Waco, district supervisor, visited Corsicana Tuesday and inspected the local project, conferred with Mr. Jester, Mrs. Colp, Miss Wood, Mrs. L. A. Wortham, Mrs. Kirk Steele and others interested in the project with reference to various departments and details of the work now being done.

The girls, between the ages of 18 and 24 years, are housed in the nurses' home, P. and S. Hospital, and work in the hospital, at the court house departments, and other places.

It is understood that additional needed supplies were authorized by Director Kellam after his visit and it is believed that the number of girls at the home will be increased from the present 30 quota to at least 40.

The state director is quoted as saying the local project was an outstanding one and complimented those responsible.

Kellam years ago was a football coach in East Texas and was one of the organizers and was an official of the Texas High School Football Coaches association. The association was organized at a meeting in Corsicana.

HEALTH, BEAUTY AND POISE

HOW TO IMPROVE YOUR PERSONALITY
By VERONICA DENGEL

ANSWERS TO INQUIRIES.

I have so many questions that need to be answered. I think we shall have two days of these for this week. It is so pleasant to know that I can help you, and I do enjoy your letters so much. (And thank you, one and all, for the nice things you have to say about the column.)

Denise writes: Veronica Dengel "I am 13 years old and have had five permanent waves already. I now have to oil shampoo my hair, but I find it terribly thin on top. Please tell me what to do for this, because I should like to have my hair looking beautiful once more."

Frankly, I think it is a pity that so many children—and they are children until they are 18 or 19—should have to resort to such unnatural things as permanents. I ought to include make-up, high heels, girdles, and nail polish, too; but we'll stick to hair for the present. Permanents—regardless of what the operator may tell you—do not do the hair any good, and unless properly given, do a lot of harm. Permanents have a very definite place in the grooming and enhancement of good looks for the woman of 22 and on; but I certainly think they are unnecessary for younger girls.

However, that doesn't solve Denise's problem, and now that the damage is done, let's see what we can do about it. First, she must brush and brush and brush, 200 or 300 strokes a day, divided between night and morning. Then she must massage the scalp with warmed olive oil, working the fingers around in a rotary motion. Move the scalp under the fingers—not the fingers across the scalp. And no sets, or marcel, except for a special party. Until the hair has returned to a healthy state, just roll it up on curlers. A shampoo once a week will be wise, and dry the hair between warmed towels—not under a dryer. Lastly, add more sea foods to your diet. Oysters, clams, lobster, shrimp, fish (always remembering to include fruit at this meal) and use sea vegetables, such as kelp, dulce, Irish moss, sea lettuce, every day. These foods have a high iodine content. The sea vegetables may be secured in a powdered or tablet form, and two teaspoonfuls should be used each day.

METCALFE SAYS BUND WELL ORGANIZED AND ENTRENCHED IN U. S.

INVESTIGATOR FOR DIES CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE MAKES ADDRESS HERE

By JAMES WILLIAMSON Daily Sun Staff.

"The story of frontpage America is not that it can or will happen here, but that it is happening here."

John C. Metcalfe, Nazi and fascist investigator for the Dies congressional committee, told Corsicanians and others Monday night at the Senior High Auditorium that "Nazism is with us now."

Metcalfe's appearance was under the sponsorship of the Johnson-Wiggins Post of the American Legion and was one of the four addresses he will make in Texas. "It is happening here," he asserted repeatedly during the evening and continued to emphasize this statement with facts and figures.

Presented Facts.

Speaking quietly with a minimum of precautionary brimstone, Metcalfe stated facts that had been assembled by him as a special federal investigator—an investigation that took him into the many camps of the German-American Bund where he posed as a sympathizer to acquaint himself with the inner workings of un-American organizations.

Newspaperman by profession, and recipient of the National Headliner's Club award for the best news reporting in 1938, Metcalfe undertook the investigation first as a journalist and then as a congressional investigator. In eighteen months he covered 50,000 miles from Mexico City to Canada.

Have Many Members.

"We know today," he said, "that there are 25,000 members in the German-American Bund in the United States with an active membership of 25,000." Metcalfe explained that although a 25,000 membership may seem a comparatively small number in a country of 130 million but that there were also 100,000 so called Americans who attend Bund meetings. "This number I have seen myself," he stated. For each member invited enough to attend a public meeting, there are four sympathizers, bringing the total to more than a half-million people, he continued.

From this membership, the German-American Bund can muster in its own ranks a uniformed army of 5,000 storm troopers which in time of necessity, could be augmented with strong-arm detachments of Hitler thugs, such as Italian Black Shirts, Silver Shirts, Ukrainian Brown Shirts, and the like, Metcalfe explained.

It is from the manpower of this force that the Bund, working hand in hand with the Nazi government, can draft men for a sabotage machine and spy net to be put into operation in the event that the United States government should ever find it necessary to go to war with Germany, he continued.

Metcalfe stated that during his operations he discovered persons working in the Brooklyn Navy Yards who had been successful in securing positions which placed them in direct possession of secret plans for the construction of the United States battleships of the latest type and who had been assigned to trial runs on these American battleships.

Most Serious Aspect.

"The most serious aspect of the Nazi picture in America is the closely-knit relationship existing between the German government and the German-American Bund through the activities of the Nazi consuls in our country," Metcalfe said.

He stated that consuls representing Nazi Germany have repeatedly interfered in our domestic affairs and have done much to stir up racial and religious antagonism and have permitted their offices to be used as centers for alien propaganda activities.

Metcalfe stopped briefly at this point to explain the reason for Hitler's continual religious and racial persecutions. "Dictatorships are based on a sustained interest of the people. They must be fed like an all-consuming fire," he explained. "People are aroused with petty hatreds and under this detaching screen, the dictator marches on."

One hundred and thirty-five un-American organizations have been found, Metcalfe stated. "Approximately 75 per cent of these are racketeers," he said. The danger of these activities lies in the fact that under strong leadership they could be organized into a powerful anti-democratic force, he explained.

One of the most ambitious programs of the German-American Bund is the plan to consolidate all fascist elements in America into one great movement which the Hitler-inspired Bund is to lead, Metcalfe stated.

President Deserves Loyalty.

Metcalfe believes that any militant steps taken by the President of the United States to rid the country of "these poisonous rodents" will be to the interest and protection of the country. "In this the President heads and deserves our unswerving loyalty and support," he stated.

Successful democracy is the answer to the dogs of the right and the left. It is our best weapon to crush the agitators of all alienisms without and within," Metcalfe said in conclusion.

C. E. McWilliams, post commander, introduced the speaker. Invocation was given by Dr. Albert B. Horn. Entertainment on the program was by Miss Linda Sims who played an accordion number. Dr. J. Wilson David led the audience in singing and Bill Elliott accompanied on the piano.

COUNTY ELECTION OFFICIALS NAMED BY COURT MONDAY

PAYMENT BILLS PRECINCT WHERE SUITS THREATENED ORDERED

Appointment of election officials in the forty-eight voting precincts of Navarro county for the ensuing year, payment of several bills owed by Commissioner C. O. Slaughter after a threat that a suit would be instituted, and purchase of a pickup truck for use by Commissioner Slaughter, were the subjects of the afternoon session of the Navarro county commissioners court. After T. A. Farmer, assessor and collector of taxes, had explained that Slaughter had explained that before the Texas legislature whereby the state tax board would have the final say on taxable reductions, the court voted strong opposition to the proposed action. The writing of letters of protest to the representatives and senators from this district in the legislature.

The court of the Gillett Chevrolet company of Blooming Grove for a Chevrolet pickup truck for $684, allowing $150 for an old truck trade in, was accepted. The pickup is for the use of Commissioner George.

Three Claims Allowed.

Three claims for Commissioner Slaughter, aggregating slightly less than $500, were allowed after the trial procedure errors in the case. Johnson was charged by indictment with rape of a white woman on April 9, 1938. In their appeal, his attorneys also stated no negro served on the jury which convicted him.

Johnson's attorneys claimed the defendant had not been afforded equal protection under the laws as guaranteed by the U. S. constitution and bill of rights.

The attorneys asserted the defendant had brought himself within a rule announced by Chief Justice Hughes of the U. S. Supreme Court in an Alabama case where evidence showed no negro had served on the grand jury "a long number of years."

"That testimony," the appeal quoted Hughes, "made a prima facie case of denial of the equal protection which the constitution affords."

The criminal appeals court opinion cited another Texas case in which it had ruled "we are bound to recognize the fact that the federal court and the laws of congress enacted thereunder are the supreme law, so far as we are concerned. Although we differ with that learned tribunal in the construction... amendments, still their interpretation thereof is the paramount law and it is our duty to follow it, and administer it fairly and impartially."

Finding no reversible error, the criminal court affirmed the death sentence assessed Laddell Rhodes, convicted of murder in a Harrison county court of murder in the slaying, April 25, 1938, of Willie Mae Fields.

Tractors Cause Damage.

Members of the commissioners court Monday afternoon reported considerable damage was being done bridges and county roads in various sections of the county by persons operating tractors equipped with lugs on the wheels.

The attention of tractor owners was strongly called to the illegality of operating tractors equipped with lugs on bridges and roads, and unless such practices are stopped, criminal action may be necessary. Lugs-equipped tractors rip large sections of the flooring in bridges and cut-up the county roads badly, it was pointed out, necessitating considerable added expense of maintenance.

NEGRO SENTENCED. DEATH FOR RAPE IS FREED BY COURT

CASE REVERSED AND DISMISSED BECAUSE NO NEGRO ON GRAND JURY

AUSTIN, Feb. 15.—(P)—The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals today reversed the death penalty of J. D. Johnson, a negro convicted of rape in Hill county, and ordered prosecution dismissed because, among other reasons, no negro served on a grand jury in that county for more than 30 years although a number were qualified.

The state's highest tribunal in criminal matters also found other trial procedure errors in the case. Johnson was charged by indictment with rape of a white woman on April 9, 1938. In their appeal, his attorneys also stated no negro served on the jury which convicted him.

Johnson's attorneys claimed the defendant had not been afforded equal protection under the laws as guaranteed by the U. S. constitution and bill of rights.

The attorneys asserted the defendant had brought himself within a rule announced by Chief Justice Hughes of the U. S. Supreme Court in an Alabama case where evidence showed no negro had served on the grand jury "a long number of years."

gress enacted thereunder are the supreme law, so far as we are concerned. Although we differ with that learned tribunal in the construction... amendments, still their interpretation thereof is the paramount law and it is our duty to follow it, and administer it fairly and impartially."

FT. WORTH TRIPPERS VISITED CORSICANA THURSDAY MORNING

MAKING TOUR EAST TEXAS INTEREST FAT STOCK SHOW MARCH 10 TO 19

Approximately forty Fort Worth business men, mainly members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce of that city, visited Corsicana for a half hour from 10:30 to 11 o'clock Thursday morning in the interest of the Southwest Exposition and Fat Stock Show to be held from March 10 to 19.

After a short tour of the business district the big chartered bus and the pilot automobile were parked alongside the Navarro Hotel where the reception committee of the Corsicana Chamber of Commerce headed by Chairman Ralph R. Brown greeted the visitors. An impromptu program of music and speeches ensued while the visitors mingled with the local business men who accompanied the reception committee.

The party left Fort Worth early Thursday and made stops in Waxahachie and Ennis before reaching Corsicana. The trippers were slated to continue their tour into East Texas during the afternoon, and then back into Fort Worth Friday afternoon after a noon stop in Shreveport, La.

Other members of the local reception committee included J. N. Garlity, J. H. Roberts, C. W. Taylor, Mayor J. S. Murchison, Charles T. Banister, Paul H. Miller, John R. Corley, John M. Sibley, C. S. Dickens, Fred D. Prince and others.

The Fort Worth group was headed by Carl Holcombe, Junior Chamber president, and Russell Bell, trip chairman, and included Clyde Weed, Ed Baty, J. Edgar Deen, Jr., Ed Fleming, Dan Tucker, Allen Lewis, Harold Evans, Luther McClung, John Hendrix, L. Brown, Joe Mulholland, Fred Edelbrock, Howard Collins, James Allen, J. M. Whitte, L. C. Eastland, Marvin Brown, J. C. McCown, Don Kyles, Pete Ellis, Harold Banks, N. H. Rivelee, Ed Ernest, Campbell Simmons, Reed Sass, Frank Montgomery, W. L. Ranshaw, Ruel Johnson, Leon Stewart, Dean T. Carpenter, Virgil Loftman, Bill Parr, E. C. Jordan, and Charles G. Cotten.

Local residents invited the party back to Corsicana in October for the second annual fair and rodeo to be staged here.

Freight Rates Fight Basis.

AUSTIN, Feb. 15.—(P)—The basis for a possible interstate fight on freight rates was laid in the Texas state today when Sen. George Moffett, Chillicothe farmer, introduced a resolution which would memorialize congress to adopt legislation eliminating "discriminations" in rates as between Texas and East and Central States.

Moffett said the Indiana legislature had appropriated $10,000 to fight efforts of Southern States seeking lower rates. He added Minnesota had taken similar action.

Moffett's resolution charged Texas and other southwestern States were paying from 60 to 85 per cent more for freight than eastern commonwealths and the difference was a penalty against farmer, laborer and business.

"It costs no more to operate railroads in Texas than in the east," he said.

FORMER RESIDENT OF DAWSON IN EXCHANGE SHOTS WITH BANDITS

ATTEMPTED BANK ROBBERY FAILURE WHEN OFFICIALS OFFER RESISTANCE

A former Dawson resident, Eddie C. Garner, assistant cashier of the First National Bank at Ringling, Okla., participated in a gun battle Monday in which three armed bank robbers attempting to hold up the institution, were routed before securing the money demanded.

Garner is the son of E. P. Garner of Dawson and a brother of Miss Carrie Garner of Corsicana. He was reared at Dawson.

Dispatches from Ringling, Okla., stated that bank employees, including Garner, shouted defiance at three pistol-waving robbers, and the bandits, made panicky by the courage of their intended victims, fled without loot after an exchange of gunfire.

The dispatches stated that the three armed and unmasked robbers entered the bank an hour before closing time and after finding the cages locked, ordered Cashier A. C. Swinney to open up.

"Go to hell," said Swinney, the Associated Press reported, and surprised the bandits hesitated. "Then E. C. Garner, assistant cashier, darted behind the counter and came up with a pistol. The outlaws broke for the door as he fired and escaped after returning his shots. The other employee was C. V. Hamilton, assistant cashier," the news story continued.

Three suspects were arrested near Graham, Carter county, less than two hours after the attempted holdup. Bank employees identified them positively as the fugitive trio.

Officers, it was reported, had gone to the home of two of the suspects, brothers, to question them about another robbery. They

DEFENSE TESTIMONY WOULD MAKE YOUTH AGGRESSOR IN ROW

DALLAS, Feb. 16.—(P)—A patron of the tavern in which Chappel Musselwhite, bartender, shot young Oscar Bergfeld last April testified today she saw Bergfeld walk around the bar apparently to attack the bartender with a beer bottle he clutched.

The witness at Musselwhite's murder trial, Mrs. M. E. Dunlap, also said two other men were slugging Arley Watkins, proprietor of the place, with beer bottles. Three city officers testified Musselwhite, who pleaded self-defense, bore knots on his head after the shooting and that a blackjack had been taken from Bergfeld's pocket. Watkins, 41, part owner of the Club Buffet, where the shooting occurred, testified yesterday he slugged Bergfeld with a blackjack during an altercation in the place three nights before the youth was slain.

P. J. Tallafiero, garage mechanic, said Bergfeld told him he was going back to the tavern to get even. An ambulance driver, C. Ralph Eastop, testified he took a blackjack from Bergfeld's pocket at the hospital.

The state contended Bergfeld was unarmed and was retreating from the establishment when the fatal shot was fired.

found no one. On the way back, they received radio reports of the attempted stickup, returned, and seized the three without resistance.

Deputy District Clerk E. B. (Pet) Dawson, a life-long resident of Dawson, related Tuesday morning that Eddie was a fearless red-headed youngster as a kid and was not surprised at his seizing a gun and shooting it out with the bandits.
